

Sir

Office of Finance
September 11. 1781. —

Before you can receive this Letter you will have been convinced of my attention to yours of the 8th. Instant as I supplied the Paymaster General with Six thousand two hundred Dollars in preference of the many other demands that come on me, and I wish it may always be in my power to answer your desires as expeditiously as in the present Instance for I am very truly

Sir

Your Obedient
Humble Servant

Robt Morris

The Hon^{ble}
Major General Lincoln

From Mr. Morris Sept. 17.
1701